ABOUT INSTITUTE OF SUPERVISIONS AND LEADERSHIP

The Institute of Supervision & Leadership was established under the companies and allied matter act (CAMA), 1990 which is the appropriate law establishing professional bodies in Nigeria, with registration number 696852. It is recognized by the ministries of Education and Justice in Nigeria,

REASONS FOR OUR ESTABLISHMENT

Research has shown that the most devastating problem, which is common to public, private and non-governmental organizations, all over the world, is "Leadership". Closely associated with it is the issue of human and organizational supervision, which in combination with leadership, have determined and dictated the successes and failures of countries, corporations, public and private companies and associations, all over the world.

Every organizations needs good leaders; even at family levels, parents must exhibit good leadership, otherwise such families would become dysfunctional. Issues of supervision and leadership affect every organization private, non governmental and all facets of our national life. Since they are multi-disciplinary, whichever discipline or profession you belong to, it is highly imperative that you acquire effective supervision and leadership skills and must continue to do so on regular basis in order to keep yourself abreast of developments all over the world, even when you have been successful or failed on many occasions!

This is why the Institute of Supervision and Leadership was established to provide the necessary professionalism, through its various professional programmes, to assist its members to become successful leaders in their areas of endeavors.

OUR FOCUS:

Our focus therefore is on effective human and organizational supervision and transformation leadership which translate to developing and motivating quality in people as a way of touching their depth, to sensitize their hearts, to unleash their creativity and to challenge. In short, we believe in touching the human core.
